Article 3 Visitors

3.1.1 Visitors of the NAMAC-fairs have access via the visitors entrance which on the fair day is open from 10:00 hour till 15:00 hour. Exceptions to the opening hours are possible on behalf of the organizer.

3.1.2 - Visitors will be admitted after payment and on presentation of their ticket.

- NAMAC-members will be admitted after presentation of their membership card.

- Non-members, can buy their ticket with QR code in advance online on the NAMAC website.

- At the entrance is a possibility to immediately buy a wristband with the help of a PIN cash register.

- After the ticket has been scanned and approved, each visitor receives a wristband with which he/she can freely enter the location during the NAMAC fairs, even after he/she has left it.

3.1.3 The most recent rates for the NAMAC fairs can be found on the NAMAC website, they can change per year.

Non-members up to the age of 12 have free entrance. For this, a child ticket with QR code must be picked up online with which a wristband is obtained. Children under the age of 12 must always be accompanied by at least one adult.

3.1.4 The visitor must comply with the law, these regulations and the instructions of the employees of the organization, the location manager and / or the emergency services.

Article 4 Participants

4.1.1 - Participants reserve their table(s) via the reservation page on the NAMAC-website. By paying the rental amount, the participant agrees to these fair regulations.

- Rent goes per table (in 2023 – 1,60 meter) or stand area.

- The most recent rates for the NAMAC fairs can be found on the NAMAC website, they can change per year.

4.1.2 - At the end of the current year, it is possible to reserve all six fairs for the coming year. Payment can be made in one go, with NAMAC members receiving a 10% discount. Payment can also be made in two times, where there is no discount.

- A separate reservation can be made for each individual fair.

Payment is made at the time of booking. The participant will receive a confirmation via e-mail.

- Making reservations for or on behalf of third parties is only possible with the agreement of the organization.
- When planning and allocating the tables, the organization takes into account the preferences of the table holders as much as possible, insofar as the exhibition halls and circumstances allow this to be carried out in terms of space. Tables are reserved in order of arrival of the reservation.

4.1.3 - The reservation via the NAMAC website must be completed in full in order to properly inform the participant and to allow for any refunds.

- The requested data is used within the framework of the GDPR. They are stored for a maximum of one year after the moment of provision.
- Online reservations via the NAMAC website are only possible for limited periods. The exact times are listed on the NAMAC website.
- Reservations made in any other way before or after the closing date for the then-current fair may not be processed.
- Table holders who are registered with the Chamber of Commerce can receive an invoice stating VAT on request. The application for this can be sent by e-mail to the fair organization.
- Cancellation of a reservation (only when renting tables per fair, so not for annual reservation) must be submitted to the organization at least 48 hours before the start of the relevant fair (via beursorganisatie@namac.nl). In case of cancellation, cancellation fees listed on the NAMAC website will be retained, they can change per year.

4.2.1 - Participants must keep their table active and occupied from 10:00 to 15:00. Exception to this rule can, if necessary, be determined by the organization.

4.2.2 - Participants of the NAMAC fairs have access via the large overhead doors at the rear of the location that are open on the fair day from 8:00 am to 9:45 am for the supply of the merchandise. The large overhead doors are open from 15:00 to 17:00 at the latest to leave the location. During the duration of the fair, a participant may not enter or remove goods through the large overhead doors between 10:00 am and 15:00 pm.

- Exceptions to the opening hours are possible on behalf of the Organizer.

4.2.3 Exhibition tables that remain empty on the morning of the fair day as due to "no-show", cancellation or other causes, can be assigned by the organization to other participants.

4.2.4 - Rented exhibition table(s) include 1 or more chairs, depending on the number of employees per table.

- Access to the fair for a number of employees of the participant to be determined by the Organizer. After checking his e-ticket and confirmation, the participant receives wristbands for the number of people allowed. With the wristband, the participant can freely enter the location during the NAMAC fairs, even after he has left it.

- The starting point is a maximum of 2 wristbands for the first table and 1 wristband per extra table. The extra wristbands are only for employees of the participant, not for extra fair visitors.

4.2.5 - Included in the rental price is the use of the Wi-Fi network of the location.

4.2.6 - Not included in the rental price is a 230V electricity connection. Participants can place a reservation separately for this by email. The costs for an electricity connection depend on the location manager. They are available on request.

4.2.7 - Not included in the rental price is the disposal of residual material and waste from the participant or the authorized employees of the participant. Small waste can be dumped in the existing garbage cans. Costs for cleaning up leftover material and bulky waste will be charged to the participant. In the context of environmental legislation, waste must be disposed of correctly and separately.

4.2.8 - The Organizer and the location manager can receive shipments or provide the material for the design or construction of the exhibition tables and / or stands.

- The participant and/or his employees must take care of the supply, unpacking, exhibition, packing and disposal of all the products intended for him at their own responsibility, risk and costs.

4.2.9 - The participant is obliged to have taken out insurance for civil liability, including liability as described in the points below.

- The participant can be held liable for damage caused to persons, movable and immovable property that are located within the location, to goods of other participants and / or visitors, at the hands of him or one of his employees.

4.2.10 - The participant is not permitted to expand his rented exhibition tables or stand space in length and / or width with tables, racks or other materials brought by himself, in view of the prescribed safety rules that apply in the location and thus blocking aisles and escape routes.

4.2.11 - The participant and/or his employees are not permitted to drill, nail, stick, paint and wallpaper floors, walls and/or ceilings or to damage them in any other way.

4.2.12 - The Organizer cannot be held liable for damage caused by the participant or one of its employees, to persons, to movable or immovable property, loss or theft of goods as a result of participant activities, nor for any damage to the property of other persons, the Organizer and / or the location manager .

Article 5 The location
